What Is Sheffield Place? Sheffield Place is a transitional-living program for homeless mothers and their children. We serve the community by strengthening families!

Our Mission: Empower single mothers with children to break out of the cycle of homelessness and poverty and become self-sufficient.

Our Purpose: Reduce the number of families dependent upon welfare by helping them increase their income and skill level, obtain and retain permanent housing, and achieve greater self-determination.

Return this form to Sheffield Place by June 15th and receive 2006 prices.
